Tutoring Experience

I've been working as a biology tutor for over 8 years, teaching students from various international backgrounds. My expertise spans across multiple curricula such as IB, IGCSE, and A-Level Biology. I specialize in preparing students for exams and assessments, ensuring they are well-equipped with the knowledge and skills to succeed.

My tutoring focuses on simplifying complex biological concepts, making the subject approachable and enjoyable for students. I have worked with learners from countries like the USA, India, and Singapore, helping them prepare for competitive exams and university admissions. Through personalized sessions, I strive to build their confidence and academic foundation in biology.
