Tutoring Experience

With over a decade of experience, I've taught a variety of English subjects across the IB, A-Level, and IGCSE curricula. My students consistently achieve excellent results, with many excelling in their final IB and A-Level exams. I have also guided students through their Extended Essays and Theory of Knowledge, ensuring their success in these critical IB components.

In addition to my teaching roles, I have acted as an Extended Essay supervisor and IB counselor. My understanding of the IB framework allows me to provide well-rounded support, ensuring that students not only perform well academically but also develop the skills necessary to thrive in higher education and beyond.
