Tutoring Experience

For the past 19 years, I've had the opportunity to work with students from a variety of backgrounds and curriculums, including IB and A-Level. My deep knowledge of English literature has allowed me to help students excel in their exams, providing them with the tools to succeed both academically and personally.

Throughout my career, I've supported students in improving their critical thinking and essay-writing skills. Whether tackling Shakespeare or modern literature, I focus on building a strong foundation in analysis and interpretation, tailored to each student's needs and goals.

In addition to my experience with secondary students, I have also taught university-level English, giving me a comprehensive understanding of how to prepare students for higher education. Many of my students have gone on to study at top universities in Europe and beyond.
